City Dads Hold Night Session.

At Monday night's monthly session of our city dads there was something doing every minute.

After reading minutes of previous meeting two long ordinances were read. The minutes were approved.

Interesting report of water committee read and ordered printed. The water department is in excellent condition.

The reports of Town Marshal Dumbauld and Police Justice Smith, also that of W. H. Smith, cashier of the water department, were read and approved.

Reports of superintendent Cunningham of the Water and Sewer Department, Attorney Duffy, and Chief of the Fire Department Curtis also approved.

Attorney J. D. Barry of the firm of Barry & Barry, appeared and presented a petition praying for the holding of an election for the granting of a twenty-five year franchise, to the Nogales Electric Light, Ice & Water company, to manufacture, distribute and sell electric current in the town of Nogales. The petition was referred to the ordinance committee to report at the next meeting.

Councilman Newmann's ordinance regulating moving picture houses, was read and referred to the ordinance committee.

The mayor and street committee were authorized to act on the streets naming and numbering proposition.

Ordinance number 92, regulating the traffic of all manner of vehicles on the street of Nogales, was passed.

Bob Glen asked for a license to sell liquor on block 41.

The peace officers were instructed to refrain from entering saloons unless on official business.

E. B. Cunningham resigned as superintendent of the water and sewer department, to take effect July 15th. The council tendered Mr. Cunningham a vote of thanks for service well rendered the town. There are five applicants for his job.

Street committee were authorized to call for bids for culvert on North Grand avenue.

The council recessed until next Monday evening.
